Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Finding Kids is a nonprofit organization dedicated to locating missing and exploited children, supporting children and families through recovery, and helping law enforcement identify and arrest predators. At no cost to families, the organization works with licensed private investigators and cyber-intelligence specialists to locate missing children through investigative fieldwork, digital intelligence, and collaboration with law enforcement. Following a child's recovery, Finding Kids provides trauma-informed aftercare, parent advocacy, youth advocacy, and resource navigation to help families heal and regain stability. The organization also partners with law enforcement to identify and disrupt individuals seeking to exploit minors through proactive investigative initiatives.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Accomplishment

Our Aftercare Advocates connect with the family to offer parents and caregivers a range of supportive services. These initial efforts are designed to provide immediate emotional and practical guidance during an incredibly challenging time. Parents receive coaching to restore trust and communication and address family dynamics. Additionally, our support groups for parents foster community and shared understanding, with guidance on online safety. Our Child Advocates have lived experience and offer individualized coaching to help the child process their experiences, rebuild trust, and regain a sense of safety. Our focus is on helping the child feel safe, understood, and supported as they begin their journey toward restoration and reintegration into their community and school. Finding Kids coordinates with other NGOs and aftercare agencies to monitor the long term stability and wellbeing of the child.
